5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY

Gospel: Mt 5:13–16.

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Commentary by the Pastor:

Today's Sunday encourages us to reflect on our Christian role in the world, especially on a personal and marital level. To be salt means to be like salt in food: present everywhere, invisible, yet making everything tasty. Likewise, a Christian is called to be the "spice of the Gospel", called to be in the world but not to become worldly, rather to enrich the world with God's "flavor," that is, God's presence! This is also conveyed by the comparison to light.

In the discourse about light, the question arises: What do we see? At first glance, we might want to list what is before our eyes, but the answer is much deeper and simpler: We see everything that is illuminated! Or, on the other hand: We do not see what is not lit! Any source of light helps us see what is illuminated or where the lamp is directed when it comes to what is commonly called a "flashlight"! In this reflection, we find the answer to Jesus' desire for what Christians, His disciples, believers should be: They should illuminate for others so that they see what they otherwise do not see! What is that? It is the experience of God, the closeness of God, from which good deeds arise that then glorify God the Father in heaven. Thus, a Christian should be a spiritual spotlight on the invisible divine reality, on the imperceptible grace of God, on the right path to eternity. It is precisely on this path that many stumble, encounter obstacles, and do not see how to proceed. There, you are called to shine; there, you are called to help your neighbor; there, you are called to bring Jesus, who said: I am the Light! Be that today, especially within the family, and particularly the husband to his wife and the wife to her husband!

Being Salt and Light in Today's World

In today's reading from the prophet Isaiah, we heard the Lord say: "Share your bread with the hungry, bring the homeless into your house, clothe the naked you see, and do not hide from your own kin."

This passage made me reflect on how many times in life we have encountered a homeless or poor person on the street asking for food or money, and how we reacted and treated that person. People often tend to judge thoughtlessly. They say someone brought their situation on themselves, ask why they don't get a job, or look for reasons to justify their own indifference. Sometimes, those who ask for help only need a kind word or a brief conversation because they long to be heard.

Our faith does not teach us to judge by appearances or condemn others' lives, but to help, do good deeds, and remain humble. As today's Gospel according to Matthew says: "You are the salt of the earth". Salt is in the small things – helping without expecting anything in return, patience with others, a smile that brightens someone's day.

And when Jesus says, "You are the light of the world", He reminds us that light is when we choose to spread positivity, listen instead of judge, and choose kindness over pride. I have personally experienced that when I help someone in need and have a short conversation with them, I feel joy for doing a good deed and brightening someone's day.
